Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the use of the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, the present depressed condition of the country, OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and COARSEST materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

Grand Rally of the Representative People!

The White Men of North Carolina in Council!

[SECOND DAY.]

THURSDAY, Feb. 6, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock,—the President, the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, in the Chair.

[By the hour of meeting, the spacious Hall was filled,—with a large number of ladies in the galleries, gracing the scene with their presence, and greeting the Convention and its officers, with their approving smiles.]

The following additional Delegates came forward and had their names enrolled, viz:

Cumberland—Peter Haynes Lennon.
Currituck—Thos. Sanderlin.
Granville—W. L. Peace, Thos. Capehart, G W Kittrell, S G Hays, R. O. Gregory.

Yadkin—Andrew C. Cowles.

Col. Jno. F. Hoke, of Lincoln, on behalf of the Committee on Organization, &c., submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members, six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The State Committee shall have power to perfect a plan of organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with said organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

The following supplemental Resolution, offered by Col. Hoke, was also adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

Geo. V. Strong, Esq., of Wayne, moved that the Convention do now proceed to the election of a Chairman of the State Executive Committee, and he placed in nomination therefor, the Hon. William A. Graham, of the County of Orange.

Gov. Graham having assigned sufficient reasons for his inability to serve in the capacity designated, his name was withdrawn, and

Col. W. J. Green, of Warren, nominated the Hon. Thomas Bragg, of Wake, and the nomination was ratified by acclamation.

On further motion of Mr. Strong, the Convention proceeded to the appointment of the members of the State Executive Committee; and, after a short recess, for purposes of consultation among the delegations from the various Judicial Districts, the following names were presented to the Convention and unanimously confirmed, viz:

First District.—Hon. W. N. H. Smith, William A. Moore, Mills H Eure.
Second District.—H. R. Bryan, Geo. V. Strong, E. S. Keaan.
Third District.—Hon. George Howard, J. J. Davis, M. W. Ransom.
Fourth District.—Hon J. M. Leach, Dr Ingram Brown, James T Morehead, Jr.
Fifth District.—Col E. D. Hall, A. McLean, Hon. Thomas S. Ashe.
Sixth District.—R. F. Armfield, W. M. Rankins, Hon J. H. Wilson.
Seventh District.—Plato Durham, A. C. Avery, M. L. McCorkle.
Eighth District.—R. M. Stokes, Cassius Chilcutt, W. L. Love.
Resident Committee at Raleigh.—Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, Gen. W. R. Cox, Seaton Gales, J. P. H. Russ, Moses A. Bledsoe.

On motion of the Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, of Wake, R. C. Badger was unanimously requested by the Convention to act as Secretary of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Badger offered the following resolution, which was adopted by acclamation, viz:

Resolved, That the President of the Convention be requested to furnish the Executive Committee with his very able address on taking the Chair, that it may be published and widely disseminated throughout the State.

Under the resolution adopted by the Convention, and in pursuance of the Plan of Organization, the President proceeded to appoint, upon the recommendation of delegates from the respective Counties, Canvassers for those Counties.

These lists, as far as prepared, will be given to-morrow. It was the understanding of the Convention that, in cases where there was a failure to designate Canvassers, recommendations should subsequently be sent into the Secretary of the Executive Committee.]

Hon. Thomas Bragg, from the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following report, viz:

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measures within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of our people, the present condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

The resolutions were enthusiastically adopted.

Vociferous calls from all parts of the house here brought Gov. Vance again to his feet. Essaying to speak from his place on the floor, he was compelled to advance to the rostrum, by the protracted demands of the Convention.

He commenced by remarking that he would be more or less than man, if he could be insensible to the reception accorded him. He was profoundly grateful for it.

He had really little to say. The business of the Convention was about done, and perhaps as much discussion had been had as was necessary. However, he might do, as the old Minister once did, when, after dividing his discourse into firstly, secondly and thirdly, he said that, "finally, breetherin, he would conclude a little." The argument was exhausted. If there was any man in the State, outside of the Insane Asylum, who needed any argument to convince him that the white man must rule this country, life was too short for him to waste breath upon such a man. All were agreed as to that,—as to the importance of preserving the government and our ancient institutions in the hands of the intelligent, patriotic and virtuous people of the land. But we are still under peculiar circumstances. The military despotism is the least of our evils, because those who hold the bayonets are the men of our own color. When it is removed, it is proposed to place us under another,—a despotism so mean and degrading, that he had a contempt for the English language on account of its inadequacy to express his detestation of it. That is the complexion of the despotism proposed for us, as may be seen by reference to the character of those who are seeking to rule over us,—seventy thousand negroes, led by a few vile outcasts from the white race, whose slogan of warfare was opposition to decent houses, glass windows and clean shirts. Who, then, in view of such a state of things, could but see the danger?

What we need is to cheer and encourage each other. We have become so gradually educated to oppression, that what we require now is courage, boldness, the determination, "knowing our rights," to maintain them. Our timidity, heretofore, has been most lamentable. With 30,000 majority in the State, our white people have been so demoralized that they allowed the recent election to go by default, when ordinary spirit and exertion would have secured them ascendancy and victory. How can you claim to be freemen, if you are willing, for fear of losing a little remnant of property, to submit to the control of 70,000 negroes, marshalled by the meanest white men whom God (for some inscrutable purpose) had ever made? If, with the power in your own hands, you cravenly yield to such control, how can you stand the comparison with the good and noble men of our illustrious North Carolina past? How can you stand the comparison with your own boys, who, taking their lives in their hands, bravely bared their bosoms in the late war, to the shock of battle, for the land of their nativity and affections?

Did we submit, it would be a lasting and eternal disgrace. Congress has allowed us, by our votes, an opportunity of defeating their work; and, if they expected that we would not strive to defeat it, they must have counted largely on our baseness. If we fail to defeat it, they will say, in the future, pointing to our 30,000 majority, you did it!—What are you afraid of? Confiscation.—Why half of us, now, can't begin to pay our debts. Bayonets? Why we have been living among them for years. Military law? Why th sacred muniment of Habeas Corpus has grown so rusty, that the best lawyers in the country have to "read up," to know what it means. There is something of which you may well be afraid. Better be afraid of what lies before you—of leaving a heritage of servitude to your children and children's children.

It will not do to ignore the odds against us. Seventy thousand negroes are sworn in secret leagues and will be marched up by a few contemptible scalawags, and voted, like so many sheep. Wherever there is a mean white man, who is despised by his own color,—or a very timid man, who is afraid of confiscation,—or an ambitious man, who, having been already defeated for office by white men, seeks to obtain office by courting the favor and equality of the blacks,—they will herd together with these 70,000 negroes, and divide all the offices among themselves. Why the so-called Convention in the Capitol had already created offices enough to give one to every white Radical self-constituted leader who could read and write.

When you go home, do not simply tell the people that we have had a glorious Convention and a good time,—that we met here some of the most distinguished men in the State and passed a series of patriotic resolutions,—but urge them to register, to vote, and to work! If, after having put forth every honorable exertion, we fail, the fault will not be with us,—the blood will not be upon our heads. He hoped that we had heart, and hope, and courage enough left to

He knew no party. If ever there had been, in the past, a warm and devoted Whig, he was that man. But he should ineffably despise himself, if he could entertain the faintest, lingering prejudice against any of his former opponents. Here are no Whigs,—no Democrats,—no Know-Nothings,—but simply "an abundance" of good, patriotic, "white men."

He had understood that it had been impudently threatened, by those who claimed the power to "kill and make alive," that all who came here and participated in this Convention should not "have their disabilities removed." One thing is certain, "Congress will remove mine," said Gov. V., "whenever I ask them to do so. I am assured that Congress will remove them on the very day that I ask for the boon,—and that will be on the day before Gabriel blows his horn!" The idea! That because patriotic gentlemen come together to consult for the good of the country—and of their race, they shall be stigmatized and ostracized. Let me tell you, sirs; I am no prophet; I cannot "kill and make alive," but the man who supposes that, even if this State Constitution is adopted, the white man will go to the bottom and the dregs and scum will stay on top, knows but little of the teachings of History.

[Gov. Vance here indulged in a strain of unmerciful satire and humor at the expense of the scum, who were thus affecting such ridiculous and impertinent airs. It was impossible for us,—it would have been impossible for any one,—to report him. The enthusiastic delight of the audience knew no bounds,—on the floor and in the galleries,—among all sexes,—which vented itself in unrestrained applause. Everybody concurred in the sentiment that it was "Vance's greatest speech."]

Col. W. J. Green, of Warren, next addressed the Convention, in a finished and excellent speech. But our limits prevent any report of his or the subsequent speeches of the Convention.

Messrs. Plato Durham, Jno. W. Graham, Geo. V. Strong, W. L. Steele, Jno. Hughes, P. C. Cameron and Russ, and the Hons. Chas. Manly, D. G. Fowle, M. E. Manly and J. R. McLean were all successively called out, and made, respectively, brief, pertinent and appropriate remarks.

On motion of Col. Jno. F. Hoke, the Chair appointed a Committee of one from each Judicial District to recommend delegates to the National Democratic Convention, when held, viz:

1st District—	J. B. Hare.
2nd	"	H. R. Bryan.
3rd	"	W. E. Pell.
4th	"	Lewis Hanes.
5th	"	D. S. Cowan.
6th	"	A. C. Cowles.
7th	"	Jno. F. Hoke.
8th	"	Marcus Erwin.

The Committee shortly after reported the following:

DELEGATES.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith,
Gen. W. R. Cox,
W. A. Wright, Esq.,
Jno. F. Hoke, Esq.,

ALTERNATES.

Jno. Hughes, Esq.,
Jno. A. Gilmer, Jr.,
A. C. Cowles, Esq.,
Hon. A. T. Davidson.

On motion of Col. W. L. Steele, the thanks of the Convention were unanimously tendered to the President and other officers of the Convention, for the manner in which they had discharged their duties.

R. C. Badger, Esq., moved that the Convention, having discharged the business for which it had assembled, do now adjourn.

Gov. Graham, the President, returned acknowledgments, in behalf of himself and associates, for the complimentary vote of the Convention. He had no remarks to make, except to re-iterate the expression of his delight at the distinguished and patriotic character of the Convention. There had been assembled together aged citizens,—middle-aged men,—and the gallant youth of the State, fresh from deeds of fame on battle fields that would be historic. He was especially proud to see the latter. Macaulay, the English Historian, has said that, after the war of the Protectorate, if one wanted to find the best artisans of any kind, and the most useful citizens, he might look for them among those who served in Cromwell's armies. There was never a war, from which a soldiery had come out so uncontaminated, as from the gigantic struggle from which we had just emerged. It is to those young men that we look for the preservation of our rights and liberties in the future. They have lain down their arms and gone quietly to work,—only asking to be admitted to their constitutional privileges. If this was not done, to-day, he had a thorough conviction that it would yet be done. All that the country now needs is a little true statesmanship and a spirit of magnanimity.

Weatherford, one of the greatest of the Creek braves, had waged a terrible war against the whites, conducted with all the atrocities of the savage nature. After the battle of the Horse shoe, he surrendered to Jackson, who, fixing upon him that stern brow and eye, whose severity so few could withstand, asked him how he dared to appear in his presence, after such deeds of enormity and outrage. Weatherford returned his defiant look with one of equal pride "True," said he, "I fought you, with all my power, as long as I could. Having failed, I came and surrendered. I deny or excuse nothing that I have done. I am in your hands.—Do with me as you please." What did Jackson do? Did he order a guard to take him into custody, to be punished and perhaps executed? No—his brow relaxed, and he said, with ardor: "You and I are friends. So brave a man can be false to no promise that he makes." Weatherford never again raised his hand against the white man. That is the way—by magnanimity and forbearance,—in which peace is made.

Wishing the delegates a safe return home, and expressing the hope that they might find their families and friends in health and safety, he declared the great Conservative Convention of 1868 adjourned sine die.

TO THE U. H. O. A. IN NORTH CAROLINA.

BELOVED BROTHERS:—Again you are called on for a final rally. Your past action has placed your names high on the rolls of patriotism. You have voted just as we wished. You have immortalized your intelligence. You have honored your hearts. You have helped the brethren. When you have seen one in want, you have relieved his distress. You have shown him where unsuspecting chanticleers crowed. You have told him whose hogs were fat. You have even stretched out your honest arm and helped him. You have also clothed the naked. If locks proved too strong, you have kindly led him to the Blessed Bureau, and covered his shame. You have cheered the despondent, and spoken words of encouragement to his broken spirit. And your doors have been always open—or if you had no doors of your own, you have opened the doors of others, and kindly Unsophisticated Heroes of Africa!—Listen to the words of wisdom. You have done well. But there is yet a great work before you. Another election is near, and you must now put forth every energy to secure the result. A new Constitution will soon be made, and it must be ratified. Loyal men must be, in all cases, chosen. Nominations will soon be made. The names of the nominees will be sent you in due time. Then is your time for action. Every unsophisticated Hero must put his shoulder to the wheel. Then, with a long push, a strong push, and a last push, we will roll on the wagon of the Old North State, with all its precious freight of Heroes and Patriots.

And the Star Bangled Spanner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Unsophisticated Heroes! Ye have much yet to do. You must ratify the new Constitution, which will soon be finished. You must put to utter rout the enemies of Reconstruction, and declare, in unmistakable terms, that LOYAL MEN MUST GOVERN. But to make sure of this result, thorough organization is necessary. Hold frequent meetings. Prepare yourselves for the various nominations to be made for office, and when they are made, stand up to them, like men, and unsophisticated heroes, as ye are. We expect you to have no strife or wrangling among yourselves for office. You are not ready for office yet. But you have the inestimable privilege of voting for those who are ready. So, "don't make fools of yourselves, and be laughed at." Your time may come bye and bye, and you must possess your unsophisticated souls in patience.

Have your councils at every county seat, and let Heroic odors radiate throughout every neighborhood. Organize! organize! organize! If there be only two or three of you, organize them. If you are alone, why organize yourself—and work! work! work! Not in the fields. You did enough of that when slaves. In high patriotic times like these, all servile labor, as well as all vain recreations, are abandoned. Do not ask wherewithal you shall be fed and clothed, without labor. Be ye not of so little faith. Ye shall be as the lillies of the field. Work for your country—and your country will feed you and clothe you. Go to the Blessed Bureau, and ye shall lack for nothing. Only work! work! work! in the glorious cause of Africanization, and all will be well.—Aye, be ready several days before election for the work to be done on that day. Let committees or precinct men, with the necessary tickets, pervade every neighborhood; and let every unsophisticated Hero of Africa work, work, work, and vote, vote, vote, up to the last moment of the last day of voting.

Brothers! Our mission is a noble one. We must ratify the Constitution and put loyal men in power. We have much to do. There is a loyal Governor to be chosen. Rome had but one Cæsar. You know the rest. Stand by your loyal friends, we beseech you, or every noble hope born in their souls of the sacred fire of Freedom will be forever quenched in midnight darkness. Be ye Heroes indeed! Gird up your loins. And gird on your swords. Remember the three little words in five little letters—FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT. There is more blood ahead. There is a Rebel conclave here in session this day, and a more reckless or desperate set of conspirators never looked in each other's faces. They sit brooding upon this distressed and impoverished people as a most fatal incubus. They are hatching new treasons. They are a set of redemptionless rascals, who have shot and hung conscripts, who have whipped women and put their thumbs under the fence, or justified or ordered it,—who have run down panting deserters with blood hounds, who have opened smoke-houses and corn cribs, and impressed the last dust of meal and last pound of bacon; who have preached Liberty and Independence with their lying tongues, and illustrated it with bucking, gagging, the torture, hand cuffs, starvation and murder. Over this diabolical conclave is now presiding that arch traiter, William A. Graham, and at his side is sitting a hoary headed old sinner, called Weldon N. Edwards, and they have been seen consulting with that awful reprobate, Wm. E. Pell! Are these men still to rule this people?—Forbid it humanity! Forbid it Heaven!

Fraternally yours,

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1868.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The Convention on yesterday was largely attended by an increase of delegates and a number of citizens. The report of the Committee on organization will be found to be simple in its details, but a very effective one, if carried out with energy and promptness. The platform, or resolutions, will be unanimously approved, meeting the issues of the day, frankly, and to the point.

The speech of Gov. Vance has seldom been excelled by himself, in force, aptness of illustration and humor. The audience was electrified throughout the entire speech, and when he closed many seemed so fully encharged they could hold no more. Col. Green, of Warren, and other gentlemen, then briefly addressed the Convention. The business being brought to a close, Governor Graham, on rising to adjourn the Convention, made a most appropriate and touching address to the body.

Perhaps, it is not saying too much, when we remark, that no Convention ever assembled in this city of greater ability and worth, and possessing in a higher degree the confidence of the people of North Carolina. It has been a proud occasion for the cause of Conservatism, and the delegates return to their homes with higher hopes and with a firmer resolve to do their duty, than when they came. May Heaven grant them the health, and the courage, and the self sacrifice, and the endurance, to win in a contest so fraught with danger to the dearest interests of the present and future generations.

THE "CONSTITUTIONAL" CONVENTION.

This body succeeded in passing the tax bill, on yesterday, authorized by the reconstruction acts, to pay the per diem and mileage of the members. A resolution was also passed, requesting Gen. Canby to issue an order to prevent the sale and the sacrifice of property on executions already issued. The article on the Governor and State Executive officers was amended so as to require the election for the term of four years.—The "Convention" having gotten back to the Constitution, it is hoped it will continue it to completion.

APOLOGY.—The confusion in our office incident to the last two days, and the pressure on our columns, created by the publication of the proceedings, in the same issue, of the great Conservative Convention, and of the little "so called," must be our apology for the lack of a variety in the Sentinel, to-day. We will bring everything "up square," however, to-morrow.

Notice to the creditors of Lenoir County: R. W. King, and others, Finance Committee.

WAR WITH ENGLAND.

The New York Express says:

"The best, because the surest and speediest, way to compel a settlement of the Alabama claims, peacefully, is for the people to drive from power the Rump Congress party, whose policy is to keep our country disunited, and therefore weak. A disunited country, with an impending war of races in one section of it, is in no condition to fight the most powerful naval power on the face of the globe, and just so long as we remain thus disunited, just so long will not only Great Britain, but all the other great powers, snap their fingers at us, and treat what ever claims we have upon them with contempt."

Straws show, etc., especially such straws as these: That Stevens' own town, Columbia, Pennsylvania, has lately given a Democratic majority, for the first time in twelve years; the charter election in Watertown, in this State, gives a Democratic majority of one hundred and fifty-six against a Radical majority last year of one hundred and forty-seven; in the largest vote ever cast at the charter election in Newark, in Wayne county, the Democrats, a few days since, elected their entire ticket by forty majority—a gain of fifty-four on last year's Radical majority of fourteen; and in Canandaigua the Democrats elect two out of three Trustees, all the Assessors and the Treasurer; the election last fall gave the Radicals about one hundred majority. These straws indicate the reaction which is elsewhere manifest on a large scale.—N. Y. World.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

THURSDAY, Feb. 6, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. H. T. Hudson, of the city.

Mr. Tourgee arose to a question of privilege and offered the following protest, and asked to have it spread upon the record:

Whereas, We consider the ordinance entitled an ordinance for the relief of debtors, passed by vote of this Convention, yesterday, as entirely inadequate to the wants of the people, invidious and unjust in its distinctions between debtors, affording no relief for unfortunate debtors, where old debts have been renewed since May, 1865, and others, whose present condition is equally deplorable and equally the result of the war, and that it also opens the door to unlimited fraud: We respectfully protest against this action of the Convention, and ask that this protest be spread upon the Journal.

A. W. TOURGEE,
J. J. MOORE,
G. W. WELKER,
J. W. PETERSON,
J. A. McDONALD, of Chatham.

Galloway, (negro,) objected.

Messrs. Ing and Congleton wished their names appended to the protest.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Tourgee denied that a motion could be made to that effect.

[Quite a lively little quarrel here sprung up, when Mr. Abbott said it was time to stop such disreputable proceedings, and asked that the protest be entered. The Chair then decided to that effect.]

Mr. Ray, a memorial from Eliza C. Wagner, praying for divorce. Referred.

Mr. Abbott submitted a report from the Committee on Finance, unfavorable to the resolution of Mr. French, of Chowan, in regard to negotiating a loan of 10,000 dollars, and asked to be discharged from the further consideration thereof.

By the same, another report upon the ordinance relating to bank liabilities—unfavorably.

Also, upon the resolution, asking Congress to loan the State $3,000,000—without recommendation.

Also, on a resolution to negotiate a loan of $500 for contingent expenses,—favorably.

[The bills for contingent expenses, properly vouched for, will be cashed at the First National Bank.]

Also, the following ordinance to levy a tax to meet the expenses of this Convention:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That for the purpose of raising monies, to pay the expenses of this Convention, according to the acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, a tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. should be levied on the land in North Carolina, according to its valuation in the year 1860, subject to such changes therein as have been since made by law, and on the personal property within said State, according to the valuation thereof, to be made in 1868. This tax shall be collected, paid and accounted for, at the Treasury of the State, at the times when, and in the same manner as, other State taxes are by law required to be. The collecting officers shall be subject to the same penalties for failure to collect, pay and account for the taxes hereby laid, as they now are for such failure in respect to other taxes. The said collecting officers shall receive the like compensation for the collection of other taxes.

This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

Mr. Abbott moved to suspend the rules, and proceed at once to consider the ordinance; which was done.

Mr. Heaton moved the adoption of the ordinance, and called the yeas and nays.—The roll being called, the vote stood, yeas 92, nays 13.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, a report from the Committee on Corporations. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Ragland, a resolution instructing the Committee, appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, to ask him to prevent the sacrifice of property. Rules suspended.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, thought that the relief question had been settled yesterday; he had hoped some breathing time would be allowed, and their work upon the Constitution not interfered with. He thought the various harangues indulged in lately, and the finely spun ideas given vent to, on relief, were amounting to child's play.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, favored the proposition. He was a relief man.

Hood, (negro,) said that, step by step, the republicanists were advancing to attain their object, and he was opposed to any measure that tended to that. He moved the indefinite postponement of the matter.

On demand, the yeas and nays were called, and the House refused to postpone, yeas 44, nays 56.

Galloway (negro,) moved the adoption of the resolution, and called the previous question.

The resolution was then put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. French, of Bladen, a resolution, instructing the Committee on Governor and other Executive officers to report an additional section, fixing the salaries of the different officers.

Mr. French withdrew it, with an understanding that he would renew it at the proper time.

Mr. Turner, an ordinance that no act of this Convention, appropriating monies, shall be valid, until this Constitution is ratified by the people. Lies over.

CALENDAR.

The resolution of Mr. King, of Lenoir, amending the rules of order, giving the Convention a right to suspend the rules, whenever they think proper, was adopted.

Mr. Rodman's resolution, appropriating $3,000 from the Treasury, to meet the contingent expenses of this Convention, was next taken up. Laid over.

Mr. Mullican's ordinance, declaring that contracts should be held inviolate, was taken up.

Mr. Tourgee moved to postpone it indefinitely. Carried.

Mr. Gunter's resolution, voiding all contracts, the consideration of which was Confederate money, and also all contracts, the consideration of which was slaves, was referred to the Committee on Relief.

Mr. Laflin's resolution, in regard to outstanding State bonds, was laid over until the Bill of Rights is considered.

Mr. Read's resolution, in favor of two sessions daily, was adopted.

Mr. Parker's resolution, adjourning this Convention by the 25th of February, came up.

Mr. Abbott moved to lay it on the table. Carried.

Mr. Ellis's resolution, asking this Convention to petition Congress to aid the President of the United States, in testing before the Supreme Court the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, was next taken up.

Mr. Ellis addressed the Convention at some length, and with ability, in favor of his resolution. His remarks will appear hereafter. Before he concluded, the President informed Mr. E. that, the hour of 12 having arrived, the Suffrage Bill was the special order for that hour.

Mr. Pool moved that the consideration of that question be postponed until Monday next. Agreed to.

Mr. Ellis continued.

Mr. French, of Bladen, renewed his motion to lay on the table, which was carried.

The Report of the Committee of the Whole, upon the Report of the Committee on Governor and other Executive officers, came up.

The question was upon Mr. Heaton's motion, to strike out "2" and insert "3" years, as the term of office.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, moved to insert "four" years.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, favored the report, as adopted by the Committee of the Whole. He thought two years long enough.

Mr. Forkner called for the yeas and nays on the amendment of Mr. Jones, of Washington, making the term four years. The roll being called, the vote stood yeas, 62, nays 36.

The 1st section of the Report, as amended, was then adopted.

In the 2d section, Mr. Tourgee moved to amend, by striking out "six," and inserting "eight." The section, as thus amended, was put on its passage and adopted.

Section 3d was adopted, without debate.

Section 4th., after being somewhat amended, was adopted.

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 were adopted without discussion.

Mr. Ashley moved that this article be made the special order for Saturday next, at 12 o'clock, for final action. Carried.

The Report of the Committee on Militia, as reported upon by the Committee of the Whole, was next taken up.

The various sections were adopted without debate.

The same disposition was made of it, as the Report on Governor and other Executive officers.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) called up a memorial in reference to a divorce between one Ann Underdew and her husband, William Underdew. He moved that it be referred to a select Committee of three.

Mr. Tourgee moved to lay the motion on the table. Rejected.

Harris, (negro,) proceeded to state the merits of the case.

Mr. Ashley hoped the matter would be referred to a Committee; it would save time.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, thought that the Superior Court was the proper place to be applied to in such cases. We did not come here to consider such matters. He moved the indefinite postponment of the whole matter, and called the yeas and nays upon the question.

Harris, (negro,) hoped the gentleman would allow the matter to go before the Committee; he would pledge himself not to trouble the Convention with it again; that it was nonsense for colored people to apply to the Legislature or the Courts.

The House refused to have the yeas and nays, and the question upon the motion to postpone was put and lost. The reference to the select Committee of three was then ordered.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, the Report of the Committee on Bill of Rights was made the special order for Saturday next, at 12 o'clock.

The Resolution by Mr. Teague, instructing the Committee of three, appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, to ascertain how far he would recognize legislation on the part of this Convention, was laid on the table.

An ordinance, by Mr. Duckworth, in favor of the Sheriff of Henderson County, was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, the House adjourned.

HANCOCK AND THE RADICALS.—According to reliable intelligence received in this city within the last day or two there is great uneasiness manifested by the leading radicals of the Louisiana Convention, owing to an impression which prevails among them that Gen. Hancock will not exert either authority or influence towards the election of the officers provided for by the Convention, when the constitution is presented to the people for ratification, and certain members of Congress of the radical persuasion have been appealed to by telegraph and by letter to do something, and that speedily, to tie the hands of Gen. Hancock. Some of them ask for special legislation in behalf of the Convention, and to substantially annul, in some respects, the power of the District Commander. Among others whose influence in Congress is solicited are Senators Wade, Morton and Wilson, and a number of Representatives. The information received here is to the effect that the Convention distrusts the Military Commander, and are anxious to have special instructions issued to him by Congress. The question seems to be surrounded with difficulties in the view of many members of Congress, as they are not altogether satisfied with regard to the effect of further legislation to aid in the work of reconstruction in Louisiana, where so many differ nt measures are in operation to secure that object. The hope has been expressed, however, that by passing the bill now pending, placing the power over reconstruction in the hands of the General in Chief and the effective exercise of it by Grant according to the intention of Congress—which is, that he shall use it to provide for any and every contingency which may arise—that Gen. Hancock and all other district commanders who do not accord with the radical party will be forced to give their entire aid to the constitutional conventions in their efforts to reconstruct the States on a sound radical basis, or remain quiet and harmless spectators of their movements.—Washington Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

The suicide of Rev. Mr. Brush, of Delaware, Ohio, was committed on Sunday morning, while his congregation were quietly awaiting his appearance to conduct the opening exercises of the regular quarterly meeting. The members having waited some time after the usual hour of commencing service, dispatched one of their number to ascertain the cause of his delay, and he was found hanging dead in his barn. Another clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Ryan, at Marysville, in the county adjoining Delaware, also committed suicide the same Sunday afternoon, by cutting his throat. Insanity is alleged in both cases, and in the last named it had been for some time apparent.

OBSTRUCTING RECONSTRUCTION.—Information reached here yesterday which led to the belief that Gen. Meade had issued an order for the arrest of ex-Governor Jenkins, of Georgia, on the ground of alleged obstruction to the enforcement of the Reconstruction laws. It is further said that he telegraphed Secretary Stanton to have the arrest made, if Governor J. could be found in the District of Columbia. The friends of Mr. Jenkins place sufficient reliance on the information they received to have him within reach of a court where the writ of habeas corpus would be respected.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

A New York correspondent says: "The Republican friends of Gen. Grant are making arrangements for a grand meeting in Union Square on the 22d of this month, to warm up the public in favor of the General's claim for the Presidency. Members of Congress by the dozen are engaged to speak, and the meeting is designed to be the formal opening of the campaign."

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

PAID POLICIES IN DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C" in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make A CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than by any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

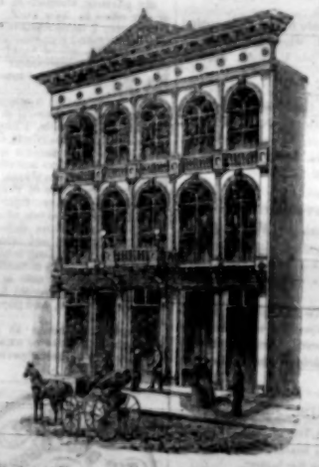
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.



Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted at the office, or by the Stock of Messrs. W. H. & B. S. TUCKER & Co.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 28th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon executions, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON BOND DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciaries, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates with, on the 15th, and 14st days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the ends of justice, economy or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold
